PLANS FOR NEWPORT.

Manager Frank Fowler, of the Newport track, got in Tuesday from New Orleans, and will remain here for several days arranging for the spring meeting at the Campbell county track.

Unless a date conference is decided on later in the season Mr. Fowler says Newport will race from Saturday, April 28, to Saturday, May 19, inclusive, making nineteen days in all. Newport will conflict six days with St. Louis, but, as it is impossible to avoid a clash, Mr. Fowler intends to go right along with the Newport meeting and do the best he can in spite of the opposition from the Mound City. Yesterday morning Mr. Fowler made a call on Secretary Hopper, of Latonia, but did not talk on the date question. They will probably have a talk over the matter within the next day or two.

There is little or no chance for a clash in dates between Latonia and Newport. Latonia will in all probability start in racing a week after Newport closes, which will be Saturday, May 26. The matter of stakes for spring has not been discussed by the Newport management, nor has it been decided what will be done with the appropriation made by the Turf Congress for stake purposes.

"The racing game ought to show considerable improvement the coming season," remarked Mr. Fowler to an Enquirer reporter yesterday. "Our meeting last autumn was a very good one and the betting game was never as good on the Newport track as during that meeting. Three of the bookmakers that were in line at Newport's last meeting are now at New Orleans. Just to satisfy myself on the point I talked with all of them regarding the money handled at the two tracks. Every one of the three told me that they handled more money at Newport than they have at New Orleans this winter, and the betting down there is something great. That shows how well the game in the betting ring was patronized, and from this point of view I look for an abundance of bookmakers at our track in the spring."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The partnership in the American three-year-old, King's Courier (Kingston—Stylitene), is registered with the Messrs. Weatherby as being shared by Messrs. J. E. Pepper, J. A. Drake and L. L. Smith. Mr. Pepper's share is one-half, the others each owning one-quarter. This disposes of the statement that Mr. Richard Croker owns the colt.

Inquirer, Chicago.—T. H. Ryan is at Cumberland Park, Nashville, Tenn., in charge of a string of fourteen horses.

E. F. B., Chicago.—Jenkins rode four winners at Oakland May 16, 1899, and the same number at the same track May 18, 1899.

CORRIGAN'S MARES.

"Of all the great race mares that Ed Corrigan has owned during his career as one of America's leading horsemen, I can only recall one that has proved successful as a brood mare," remarked Colonel Pat Carmody the other day. "The mare I have in reference is Helter Skelter, one of the fastest fillies ever seen on the western circuit. The very appropriately named Hurly Burly, one of the fastest three-year-old fillies of '98, was out of Helter Skelter. Mr. Corrigan bred Hurly Burly, but Sam Hildreth claimed her away from him out of a selling race at San Francisco and subsequently sold her to his present employer, W. C. Whitney. Helter Skelter is the mare that won the St. Louis Inaugural in '92. I consider Lizzie Dwyer the best mare that ever sported Corrigan's colors, although many believe that Modesty was a better mare than Lizzie. Modesty, you know, was the first mare to win a Derby in this country, she having annexed the inaugural American Derby, at Washington Park, Chicago, in '84. She also won the Kentucky Oaks the same year and beat Troubadour in the Distillers' Stakes at Lexington in '85. Lizzie Dwyer was a three-year-old in '85, the year she annexed the Kentucky Oaks. She was the favorite for the Suburban of '88, but the race was run over a heavy track and Mr. Corrigan's mare was unable to untrack herself in the mud. Troubadour won the Suburban that year.

"Lizzie Dwyer's untimely death, while still at her best as a racing machine was one of the biggest misfortunes of Mr. Corrigan's racing career. Modesty retired from the turf in splendid physical condition and a useful career as a brood mare was predicted for her, but, if my memory serves me correctly, she has never thrown anything worth 60 cents. Golden Rule, the best race horse Mr. Corrigan has bred in recent years, is out of Lucille Murphy, a mare that never amounted to much. Hinda, Lucille Murphy's dam, however, was a strictly first-class mare, having finished third to Unite and Wary in the first Latonia Oaks, run in '87. This is a case where the producing blood of a family cropped to the surface in the second generation although Hinda herself produced the great colt Corsini, winner of the California Derby and Clark Stakes of '99. Pearl Jennings, one of the fastest mares that Mr. Corrigan ever owned, has never been heard of as a brood mare, as far as I know. Sardine, Mr. Corrigan's crack two-year-old filly of last season, is out of Sardonyx, who also threw Sardonic, a filly that won the Latonia Oaks for her owner in '98. Geneva, the dam of Riley, is still throwing winners for Mr. Corrigan. Chimura, who won five or six races for him at the Fair Grounds last season, is out of the famous old War Dance mare, whose most illustrious son was the Kentucky Derby winner of '90."—St. Louis Republic.

the application and knowledge of its editors and the reports of its correspondents. These calculations are printed daily. Nothing is hidden. All that the staff of the paper knows is put into type. If the selections made nightly are sought by persons outside the daily delivery

Winner—Ch. c. by St. Carlo—Venetia. Went to post at 3:00. At post 4 minutes. Start good. The first six finished closely in a hard drive. Almendral finished gamely and received a strong ride. Bagdad made a great homestretch run and was going strongest at the finish. Harry Thatcher was short but had the most speed of the lot. St. Anthony and Matt Hogan closed resolutely through the stretch. Nettie Clark showed early speed.

Winner—Ch. m. by Charaxus—Ethie. Went to post at 3:30. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second handily. Rosinante finished fast and strongly but hers was a decidedly lucky win. Potente's rider threw the race away doing the looking backward act. All he had to do to win was to sit still and go on about his business. David Tenny has improved and is probably near his best now. Formero and Grand Sachem showed early speed but were outclassed.
